It is a matter of delight to learn that Shadan College of Engineering and Technology is bringing out its annual magazine "Horizon 2K19".

It is heartening to know that this prestigious institution has a glorious tradition of being committed to the cultivation of mind, body and spirit that helps the students to become balanced and competent. Ever since the inception it has produced very talented students, who have commendable achievements to their credits in various fields of science and technology. Education always dispels the darkness of illiteracy and plays an important role in developing overall human personality.

I wish this publication grand success and a bright future to the students of the college.
