Women's safety program

Shadan College of Engineering and Technology, SCET NSS volunteers are participated in women safety program. Many organization and people, in general, are still not aware of women's safety in the workplace. It's very clear from the statistics and cases on sexual harassment in the workplace. To create awareness among the employees on women's safety and their health is vital. You can use all possible techniques and ideas to spread awareness. Workshops, open group discussions or activities can help to create awareness on women's safety in the workplace. The physical and psychological health of your workers. Awareness starts with the implementation of guidelines, and laws against sexual harassment in a workplace. Therefore, without understanding the root cause you cannot stop any discrimination against women.
